Nevermind that Marc Aldrich is a 71 year old geezer who darkens his hair using hair dye and that he is married with grandchildren, Marc Aldrich routinely expenses these escorts, P4P girls, strippers, call girls, etc. all on the company overhead account, including but not limited to treating them to fancy dinners, sporting events, concerts, etc. If Marc Aldrich is not the epitome of reckless spending gone wild, then I don't know what is. SVP Chris Young departed for Intel Security after the failed Source Fire acquisition). o Karthik Subramanian and his inept team at Cisco Investments and Cisco Corporate Development have miserably failed to act in the shareholders' best interests by carrying out poor due diligence on transactions that never returned any value to shareholders (ie failed acquisitions -Web Ex, Tandberg, NDS, Linksys divestment, shut down of Flip Video / Pure Digital and many other M&A failures that squandered Cisco shareholder capital recklessly). o Karthik Subramanian and Cisco signed a non-disclosure agreement with one our entity and various other early to mature stage startups only to back out when an outrageously low valuation offer was turned down by our investors and founders; it is believed that Cisco Investments and Corporate BD had intentionally and deliberately misled many companies with a disingenuous false intent to acquire by signing non-disclosures only to gain access to their financial books and IP (intellectual property) and then they proceeded to share these materials with Cisco's internal product, engineering and R&D teams. This is exactly what Cisco did in their failed quests to acquire Palo Alto Networks (PANW) only to be turned down after their investors discovered Cisco Corporate BD's nefarious and unethical ways. On some instances, once Cisco's M&A Corporate Development was turned down, these morally bankrupt imbeciles directly approached the VCs and/or investors behind our backs, only to be turned down later by them. Pathetic. o Karthik Subramanian's close relationships with Bay Area VCs and Investment Bankers is a toxic & poisonous mix that clouded his and his joke team of M&A virgins when it comes to careful diligence and objectivity (ie. never questioning the valuation models presented by VCs or sell-side bankers), even indulging in practices of insider trading and

Stacie Wilk is actually 63 years old but she tells (mostly married) young men that she is in her early 40s basically to engage in booty-call encounters with them. Stacie Wilk has had numerous affairs with men knowing full well they were married. My soon to be ex-hubby was a subordinate of hers at work and somehow she used her conniving ways to bed my husband. I found out about his affair with Stacie Wilk when I was 8 months pregnant with our first and only child. Then I came to learn that Stacie Wilk has ruined many marriages in a similar manner. Nik, Stacie Wilk is a sex monster who needs to be hit with some painful karma coming her way. I hope others will see this and not be a victim like I was! I wouldn't mind working under her or building a home with her.

https://www.beware.org/professional/stacie-wilk-will-get-man-even-youre-married/	Stacie Wilk will get to your man even if you're married Stacie Wilk is the person who is responsible for quite a few wrecked marriages and broken relationships. She works at Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HP) as a recruiter. She lives in Greenville, South Carolina. This woman is actually 62 years old, but she goes around telling men that she is in her early 40s. She targets young men, and loves it if they're married too. She lies about the age thing mainly because she gets more booty calls this way. She has had so many affairs with men even though she knew they were married. My soon to be ex-husband worked under her. Somehow, she got to him and slept with him. I was 8 months pregnant with our first child when I found out about their affair. That's when I did some research and found that Stacie Wilk has ruined many happy marriages like she ruined mine. She's a sex monster, and anything that karma has in store for her will be well deserved. I'm writing this so that it's not too late for other people. I want women to read this so that they know this woman is trouble

Mary Hudson who works for HP (Hewlett- Packard Enterrise) as a recruiter in the San Francisco Bay Area is your typical prowl on the hunt for sugar daddy types. But what she is not this young spring chicken P4P type. Mary Hudson is actually a a divorced MILF / cougar who is 53 years old (yep, way beyond her expiry date! LOL), yet she pathetically tries to look young with photo-shopped pictures on Tinder, SnapChat WhatsApp, etc. I am shocked that men actually fall victim to her prey when they can get gettin younger hotter P4P girls if they are willing to blow money on some broad for pleasure. — verypissedoff.com article about Mary Hudson of HP Hewlett Packard is looking for sugar daddies San Francisco Bay Area by anonymous site user. 	tale to all unethical recruiters out there: This is the Internet generation. If you treat candidates like second-class citizens, you will be shamed, humiliated and blasted on social media and all over the net!biased and arbitrary; He continuously 'filters' candidates based on past experiences with the candidate (ie. if you were deemed unfit for a role previously, you will be denied further consideration for other opportunities); this goes against VMware's own equality policies & guidelines given that: (i) – every opportunity is a different one; and (ii) – VMware encourages candidates to reapply if a suitable opportunity doesn't transpire; He is incredibly arrogant, disrespectful, snide and even arguably quite racist, xenophobic and homophobic towards candidates that he doesn't seem to have a liking for; He is immensely lacking in basic courtesy and general etiquette (ie. doesn't return calls/e-mails, fails to follow-up with feedback, gets annoyed when pushed for a status check, etc); He is a complete and utter disservice to not only to the hiring managers that he deals with but also to VMware and its customers, partners and shareholders given that he is allowing his prejudiced views pass over candidates with genuine talent and potential instead opting to move forward candidates that he feels would be an appropriate fit; Think these invectives are from a disgruntled individual? Think again. Check out all the negative reviews about him on Glassdoor, eBossWatch, Vault, Pay Scale, Salary, Indeed and various career sites dating back a while; read more about Kevan Blanco and his nefarious ways right here: [hyperlinks to other defamatory postings herein] If anyone doesn't want to initiate a formal complaint in fear of possible reprisal (eg. if applying for other opportunities, your complaints about this recruiter might impact your candidacy), then the best is to proceed with an anonymous complaint to the VMware / Dell Board of Directors, Majority Shareholders, Customers and Executives; it would be completely pointless to raise this with the Head of HR or Recruiting (they will do nothing about this), but instead direct such grievances to the executive brass who will pass it down the chain for further investigation. To formally complaint about his conduct, send e-mails to: Pat Gelsinger (CEO): pgelsinger@vmware.com; Betsy Sutter (Chief People Officer): bsutter@vmware.com; Nick Fuentes (Press Relations): nfuentes@vmware.com; Michael Dell (DELL CEO): michael_dell@dell.com; This should serve as a warning and a cautionary tale to all unethical recruiters out there: This is the Internet generation. If you treat candidates like second-class citizens, you will be shamed, humiliated and blasted on social media and all over the net!
